Harnas Wildlife Experience By N/a'an ku sê Enters New Chapter with Premium Conservation Focus

10 June 2026

Dear Partner,

We are pleased to share an important update regarding the future direction of Harnas Wildlife Experience.

As part of a strategic repositioning, Harnas will place an even stronger focus on its volunteer programme, further strengthening its role as a conservation-first destination within the N/a'an ku sê portfolio.

This transition is aimed at enhancing the overall volunteer experience while supporting the long-term sustainability and development of Harnas.

What this means:

- Volunteer bookings continue as normal.
- All existing confirmed bookings will be honoured as booked.
- Improvements to volunteer facilities, accommodation and programme offerings will be introduced in phases.
- Harnas will continue to deliver meaningful, hands-on conservation experiences for volunteers from around the world.

As part of this transition, Harnas will no longer accept new standard leisure bookings, camping bookings, walk-ins or day visitors. Existing confirmed guest bookings will be honoured in full.

Further developments and future offerings will be communicated as they are introduced.

We thank you for your continued support and look forward to sharing the next chapter of Harnas with you.
